DEFENDANT: REGINALD WEAVER aka Reginald Lee Weaver
CASE NUMBER: 2:15-cr-00334-APG-NJK-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: REGINALD WEAVER aka Reginald Lee Weaver
CASE NUMBER: 2:15-cr-00334-APG-NJK-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. No Contact with Minors - The defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18, other than his own children, without the consent of a parent or guardian who is aware of the nature of the defendant's background and offense conduct. Furthermore, the association shall only occur in the presence of a responsible adult who is also aware of the nature of the defendant's background and offense conduct. The consent and notifications shall be confirmed and approved by the probation officer in advance. The defendant shall not loiter within 100 feet of places primarily used by children under the age of 18. This includes, but is not limited to, school yards, playgrounds, arcades, public swimming pools, water parks, and day care centers. The defendant shall not engage in any occupation, either paid or volunteer, that caters to known persons under the age of 18.
2. Computer Restriction and Monitoring - The defendant shall keep the probation officer accurately informed of all computers and computer related digital devices or equipment with memory and/or wireless capabilities that he/she owns, uses, possesses or has access to. This includes, but is not limited to, desktop, laptop, and tablet computers, smart phones, cameras, digital readers, and thumb drives. The defendant shall provide to the probation officer all device and program passwords and internet service provider information, upon request. The defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware or software systems on any computer or computer related digital device, to monitor the use of said equipment, at the direction of the probation officer; and the defendant agrees not to tamper with such hardware or software and not install or use any software programs designed to hide, alter, or delete his/her computer activities. Furthermore, the defendant shall consent to the inspection, imaging, copying of data, or removal of any device to ensure compliance with conditions.
3. Access to Financial Information - You shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including personal income tax returns, authorization for release of credit information, and any other business financial information in which you have a control or interest.
4. Pay JVTa assessment if ordered by the Court.
5. Mental Health Treatment - You shall participate in and successfully complete a mental health treatment program, which may include testing, evaluation, and/or outpatient counseling, as approved and directed by the probation office. You shall refrain from the use and possession of beer, wine, liquor, and other forms of intoxicants while participating in mental health treatment. Further, you shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment, as approved and directed by the probation office based upon your ability to pay.
6. Pornography Prohibition - The defendant shall not possess, own, use, view, or read any material depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct" involving children, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2), or "actual sexually explicit conduct" involving adults, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2257(h)(1). This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, computer images, pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games. The definition under 18 U.S.C. § 2256 (2) means actual or simulated (a) sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, or oral-anal, whether between the same or opposite sex; (b) bestiality; (c) masturbation; (d) sadistic or masochistic abuse; or (e) lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area of any person. The definition under 18 U.S.C. § 2257(h)(1) means actual, but not simulated, conduct as defined in clauses (a) - (e) above. Furthermore, the defendant shall not patronize any place where the primary purpose is related to such material or entertainment.
7. Warrantless Search - You shall submit your person, property, residence, place of business and vehicle under your control to a search, conducted by the United States probation officer or any authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the probation officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
8. Sex Offender Treatment - The defendant shall attend, cooperate with, and actively participate in a sex offender treatment program, which may include polygraph examinations, as approved and directed by the probation officer, and as recommended by the assigned treatment provider.
